

A Symposium

THE WHITE SALT INDUSTRY: PRODUCTION, TRANSPORT AND IMPACTS

SATURDAY, 20 OCTOBER 2018
10.45 - 17.00

LION SALT WORKS, OLLERSHAW LANE,
MARSTON, NORTHWICH, CW9 6ES
(Free Parking available on-site)

Ticket £25 including buffet lunch and coffee. Tickets must be pre-booked
Entry to the museum is neither required nor included in the price

Programme

Why is there salt in Cheshire? How is it extracted and turned into "white salt"? How did - and does - it reach the customers? Speakers with a wide knowledge of their subjects will address these and related questions.	09:30	Registration and Coffee
	10:45	Introduction	Jonathan Ayles
	11:00	Saltscape Geology and Subsidence	Ros Todhunter
	11:45	White Salt Production, History and Technologies	Andrew Fielding
	12:30	Buffet Lunch
	13:15	White Salt Transport, History and Technologies	Mike Nevell
	14:00	Historical Wild Brine Pumping at Lion Salt Works Marston	Juan Cunliffe
	14:45	Coffee Break
	15:00	Historical Wild Brine Pumping at Murgatroyds Works Middlewich	Kerry Kirwan, Steve Broadfoot
	15:45	Modern Controlled Brine Extraction	Jon Whieldon
16:30	Summary	Jonathan Ayles

Further Information: www.newcomen.com

E-mail: meetings.north.western@newcomen.com

Booking at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-white-salt-industry-production-transport-and-impacts-tickets-48463864724> Booking closes 30th September

The Symposium is organised by the North West Branch of the Newcomen Society, in association with Cheshire West Museums, The Lion Salt Works Trust and the Middlewich Heritage Trust.

The Newcomen Society is Registered Charity 215410